

English-German speaking psychotherapist for individuals, couples and families.

.....with special interest in immigration, cultural adjustment, life-transition and relationship issues.

I have varies degrees from universities in Germany and the United States and have a four years training in Transactional Analysis Psychotherapy from Metanoia Institute in England. Both, my professional background as well as my personal experiences as a wife and a mother of two grown up sons who lived with their family in Germany, England and the United States adds to my work as a psychotherapist.

Together we will find a solution to your personal question.
